Chief Executive Officer and Executive Headteacher

Lydiate Learning Trust

Ann Stahler has had various roles in secondary schools, including two Headships spanning from 2005 to present day. She is currently CEO/Executive Head of Lydiate Learning Trust and has been for approx. 5 years. This followed 6 years as Headteacher of Deyes High School, Sefton, where she led the school through two successful OFSTED visits. OFSTED wrote of Ann's leadership that the school improved rapidly and staff followed her determination and passion to make the school the best it can be.

Due to the success of Deyes High School the DFE approached Ann and her Governors to develop a multi-academy trust in 2015. Childwall Sports & Science Academy then joined Deyes High School to form Lydiate Learning Trust. The last OFSTED at Childwall Sports and Science Academy described the Trust that Ann leads as "pivotal in the school's journey of improvement".

Ann has also contributed to many school improvement projects in other schools and opened a brand new Free School and Teacher Training Centre. She became an LLE in 2011.

Ann's fundamental passion lies in learning and her moral purpose is based on the premise that "all children have the right to be taught by outstanding teachers". To this end, she mentors staff in the classroom, as leaders through coaching on the NPQH programme and delivers leadership training at all levels. She is not frightened to take on or work with schools in difficulty offering support for schools in challenging circumstances.
