Jenny Smith

Non-Executive Director (Trustee)

Jenny brings comprehensive educational expertise spanning Nursery through Year 11, with senior leadership experience as Primary Deputy Head and Acting Headteacher. Her 30+ year career demonstrates unwavering commitment to special educational needs coordination across Primary, Secondary, and Alternative Secondary environments.

Jenny's recent position as a National SENCO for an Alternative Secondary education provider across 13 school sites and 15 Local Authorities, and current position as SENCO for a large mainstream Secondary school in Staffordshire, illustrates the range of experience she brings to the role.

Passionate about inclusion and raising educational standards, Jenny specializes in enabling pupils to achieve their full potential through innovative, person-centred approaches to special educational needs support.
